The Texas Transportation Commission (commission) desires to award funds to support the continued development of coordinated regional planning in public transportation.

Transportation Code, Chapter 455 assigns a broad spectrum of public transportation roles and missions to the Texas Department of Transportation (department).

Transportation Code, Chapter 456 authorizes the commission to administer funds appropriated for public transportation.

Under §5304 of the Federal Transit Code, the Federal Transit Administration provides the department with funds to be used for planning and coordination projects.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the commission that the executive director, or the director's designee, is hereby authorized to proceed with the allocation of $1.38 million in federal §5304 funds as listed in Exhibit A, notify the entities in writing of the commission's approval, and enter the necessary contracts.
