

A man is shown from the chest up, sitting in the driver's seat of a car at night. He has a concerned expression, looking off to the side with his hand on his forehead. The background is dark, but there are two bright, out-of-focus lights: a red one on the left and a blue one on the right, suggesting a police car's emergency lights. The overall mood is one of tension and urgency.

Click It or Ticket.
Day and Night.

Abroche o Pague.
Día y Noche.

If you still don't get the message, officers will deliver it by hand.

State law requires everyone in the vehicle to buckle up, day or night.

It's the law.

- Adults who don't buckle up, even in the back seat, face fines and court costs of up to $200.
- Kids younger than 8 years must be in a child safety seat or booster seat unless they're taller than 4'9" – fines for drivers can reach $250.

Si aún no recibe el mensaje, los policías se lo darán en persona.

La ley de Texas requiere que todos en el vehículo se abrochen el cinturón de seguridad, día y noche.

Es la ley.

- Los adultos que no tengan el cinturón abrochado, incluso aquellos en el asiento trasero, se enfrentarán a multas y costos de tribunal de hasta $200.
- Los niños menores de 8 años deben ir en un asiento de seguridad infantil o silla para niños más grandes a menos que midan más de 4'9" de estatura, las multas para conductores pueden llegar a $250.