

Accessing AASHTO Digital Publications

Only use Internet Explorer (IE) for access.

1. This now requires a plug-in to view the content. You can download this from the software center on your computer desktop. The file you need to install is called "FileOpen security plug in".
2. Once you have the plug-in installed you can conveniently access the MTD left hand navigation for direct access to the AASHTO Materials publication release(s) you are looking for such as G1, G2 and G3. You can access all the digital publications through the MTD Quick link "AASHTO Digital Publications" or click the link below to download a local copy.
3. Please click on this URL to access all digital publications:
